

Are you ready for the JumpStart Your Business Bootcamp?

“Give Me 4 Hours and I’ll Help You Design an Action Plan to Create the Business of Your Dreams Around the Life You Want to Live!”

Stop trading hours for dollars or making less than you’re worth!

The time is NOW to take over your business and have it fit your lifestyle rather than you fit your life around your business.

I’ve designed a BRAND NEW BOOTCAMP just for highly motivated entrepreneurs who are truly ready to take a HUGE LEAP in their business success. Let’s take you from surviving to THRIVING in your business in this ½ Day JumpStart Your Business Bootcamp!

Many of you know me as a very “tell it like it is” and “to the point” Marketing Consultant but over the last two years I’ve been doing a whole lot more than helping my consulting clients with their marketing....we solve all their business problems!

I’m a problem solver through and through.

- You need more clients and referrals? That’s a problem that I know how to solve.
- You need to double your revenues? That’s a problem I can help you solve.
- You want more time off in your business? That’s a problem I know how to solve.
- You want to create new streams of income or new products and services but don’t know how to begin or what to create? That’s a problem I am great at solving too!

Have you tried a bunch of things in your marketing and in your business with little to no results?

Have you spent a bunch of money on things that didn’t pan out?

Have you spent a bunch of time learning how to do new things in your marketing but still aren’t implementing them effectively?

Wonder why your clients aren’t buying from you? Why they aren’t referring business to you?

Wondering if you are talking to the right people with the right messages and the right offers?

These are all things I work with clients on every month. This is why I designed this NEW JumpStart Your Business Bootcamp!

I've learned what all these important things and concerns are with you by asking and listening to my clients over the last couple years and I've designed this new Bootcamp to fit you!

Location: Sacramento or Folsom

Time: 10:00 am - 2:00 pm

Light refreshments included

Bootcamp Binder and Materials included

This will be a hands-on workshop where we will get on the internet and work on your website and email marketing campaigns plus we'll develop your entire relationship marketing and follow up system!

You will get so much done in these 4 hours it will amaze you!

Get farther faster and attract more clients to you now instead of waiting around until what.....win the lotto?

Learn how to:

- Market effectively to everyone you meet and know regularly in order to stay on top of mind when it comes to your products and services while spending the least amount of money and time possible
- Use the internet to leverage your knowledge, products, services and relationships to attract more clients who want to pay you
- Develop an easy to implement email newsletter that your contacts want to read and email blasts, announcements and follow up marketing that will make people take action
- Delegate in your business so that you can concentrate more on developing new income streams, products and services and building relationships with your contacts and referral sources
- Change up your current website or develop your new site to make sure it builds your list and brings you leads while you sleep – not to mention sales!
- Actively incorporate social networking and internet marketing into your overall marketing plan and why
- Pay less for printing and direct mail costs, graphic and web design and many other services you need
